

Saint Luke's/Missouri Endowed Chair in Emergency Medicine

Saint Luke's Hospital of Kansas City and the University of Missouri-Kansas City (UMKC) School of Medicine seek an outstanding candidate for a full-time Research Associate Professor or Professor for the Saint Luke's/Missouri Endowed Chair in Emergency Medicine at Saint Luke's Hospital in Kansas City. The UMKC Department of Emergency Medicine, founded in 1973, has >80 faculty/adjunct faculty with a thriving residency program and medical education/simulation fellowship. Saint Luke's Hospital enjoys an international reputation for its clinical and outcomes research. Current areas of focus include: medical education/simulation, infectious disease, pharmacology/toxicology, EMS, implementation science, and emergency cardiovascular/stroke care.

The chair holder will assume a leadership role in emergency medicine and advance emergency medicine research by conducting research, pursuing/obtaining extramural funding, and assisting in research education efforts locally, regionally, and nationally. Minimum qualifications include:

- MD/DO, PhD or PharmD degrees
- Record of research, scholarly publications, and funding in topics related to epidemiology, prevention, implementation science, outcomes and/or treatment of emergency medical conditions.

The Saint Luke's Hospital and UMKC School of Medicine recognize that a diverse faculty is important to providing medical education and research that addresses the effective delivery of healthcare in diverse communities by promoting a culture of inclusion and supporting a diverse institutional climate. St Luke's Hospital and UMKC support equal employment opportunity.

Kansas City is a Midwestern city that provides affordable, convenient, family-friendly housing with all the amenities of larger cities including professional sports, world-class museums and theatre and has been ranked by U.S. News and World Report as one of the nation's best places to live.

For consideration please submit a cover letter describing your research interests/efforts along with a curriculum vita to:

D. Adam Algren, MD
Chair, St. Luke's/Missouri Endowed Chair of Emergency Medicine search committee
Chair, Department of Emergency Medicine
University Health
Associate Professor of Emergency Medicine/Pediatrics
University of Missouri-Kansas City School of Medicine
adam.algren@uhkc.org